n. nominal. Expressions functioning as nominals (nouns, noun phrases, etc.) are marked n.

trans. transitive. Expressions that are transitive verbs or transitive verb phrases (a transitive verb and its auxiliaries, object(s), and modifiers) are marked tr.

Of course, many of the entries may seem offensive or insulting because that is the nature of much slang. Some entries are followed by an asterisk (*), which indicates caution in their use. These cautions are usually based on social taboos or the avoidance of specific topics.

Entries have an indication of pronunciation in IPA symbols. See the symbols and their values below. The most prominent syllable in a multisyllabic word is preceded by a ['].
